Seeking nominees for: Amy Utsunomiya Memorial Youth Community Service Award

Do you know a young person that has helped one of the Japanese American organizations or the JA community in the Pasadena area during 2021? Here is a great way of recognizing them.

The annual award was created in memory of Amy Ota Utsunomiya. A strong community activist and past PJCI President, Amy grew up in Pasadena, attended local schools, and was a member of our church. The nominating committee wants to recognize all deserving young people who have helped the community in 2021. Please submit nominations as soon as possible before January 31. Please contact Wade Utsunomiya for nomination forms, referrals, or questions at (626) 799-7719 or utsunomiya@earthlink.net.

Last year, Lucas Lee and Natasha Lee were recognized for service to the Pasadena Buddhist Temple.
